Reviews from Lisa Perrotti-Brown, The Wine Palate

2021 COMMITMENT CABERNET SAUVIGNON, 98 PTS

Powerful, Bold, Black Fruit, Cassis, Blueberries, Cedar, Full bodied, Refreshing Acidity, Notable Oak, Grainy Texture, High Tannin, Ready to Drink. Deep garnet-purple in color, the 2021 Cabernet Sauvignon Commitment is a blend of 92% Cabernet Sauvignon, 3% Petit Verdot, and 5% Malbec. It erupts from the glass with powerful notes of crème de cassis and blueberry pie, giving way to hints of fresh cigars, cedar chest, and dried Provence herbs, plus a waft of dusty soil. The full-bodied palate is firm with ripe, grainy tannins and bold freshness, framing the muscular, slowly evolving black fruit layers, finishing long and savory. This is the very same wine as the Estate Cabernet Sauvignon except it sees one more year in oak after blending.
